The crowd opens with Aunt Polly arriving the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with his work.

Tom comes home at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly asks him about his school performance and what he learned. He replies in all sorts of ways, but she is not satisfied. She tells Tom that he must do his homework and that he must be obedient.

Tom goes out of the house to play the streets of St. Petersburg. He and the new arrival, Huckleberry Finn, play a game of hide-and-seek. They are seen several times, but they always manage to escape.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and decides to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom goes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
